Mayor Easton said item #1 on the Special Work Session agenda is:

Presentation and discussion with representatives of AT&T Mobility regarding an agreement to leaser Bixby utility poles and other facilities for location of small wireless facilities.

Presented by: Tammy Ewing

Others that spoke Jason Constable and John Gray AT&T representatives

City Attorney Tammy Ewing stated that this is small cell wireless pole sharing agreement that has been discussed more than once, Tammy introduced the representatives from AT&T to council. Jason Constable gave council a short briefing on the small cell into the AT&T network and putting them on the Bixby utility poles and with the agreement it will allow us to use the city infrastructure for potential small cell use. Jason continued to explain the different types of technology to be used for this proposed project and Jason asked if council had any questions.

Discussion continued on this item.

No action taken.
