Mayor Easton said item #1 on the Special Work Session agenda is:
Discussion and show-and-tell presentation on potential development changes regarding Boardwalk proposed Mixed-Use project and the associated PUD revisions.

Presented by: Marcae' Hilton

Applicant was not present and therefore no discussion on this item.

Mayor Easton said item #2 on the Special Work Session agenda is:
Discussion on a laser tag business in Bixby proposed by Bad Wolf Ops Tactical Laser Tag

Presented by: Councilor Stewart
Others that spoke: Brain Babcock 223 S Maple St Sapulpa, Mia Babcock

Councilor Stewart stated that he was contacted by Brian Babcock and I will let him make a presentation on this item. Councilor Stewart stated that he wanted to get the City's temperature on this type of business, so I will turn this over to Brian.

Brain Babcock stated that he appreciates your time and I am here with my wife Mia. Brain stated that we have a mobile laser tag company and we are just entering our fourth year and being mobile we move our equipment to residents for private parties, church groups and youth groups plus schools. Brain stated that we do laser tag indoor or outdoor and the tactical part is not restricted by any environment and it doesn't have any special requirement. Brain stated that what we are instructed in and we have had a lot of growth as a mobile business and we are out of Sapulpa and we are looking for a community to set roots in to start an indoor or outdoor business with many clients in Bixby and our clients have asked for a place to go to if they live in an apartment to have their private party, so that is where we are today and we are looking for a location and so I contacted Mr. Stewart and he said come in and let's talk about it, and if you have any question I would be glad to answer and would like some feedback from.

Discussion continued on this item.
No action taken.

Adjournment was called at 5:28 p.m.
